Canada's Premier Sees War Work

Pushed by General William Lyon Mackenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada (center) see how cartridge cases for rifles and machine guns are made. Explaining the process to him is Col. A. Theriault, officer commanding the arsenal. Work in this one arsenal has been stepped up so much by expansion and the introduction of new machinery that in one single working day it now turns out as many cartridge cases as it did in the whole of 1940.

GROWTH THROUGH SERVICE

Each succeeding quarterly statement sees the Florida National Group marching steadily ahead... progress born of friendly and thorough service to customers throughout Florida. The Florida National Group is Florida's largest group of banks—largest in deposits, largest in amount of money loaned to business and industry. A glance at the "Loans and Discounts" item in the accompanying statement shows how extensively we have cooperated with business to finance the expansion and development of enterprise in our area.

There's a Florida National Group bank in every major center of industry, commerce, recreation and agriculture in peninsular Florida. Each of these banks offers a full-sounding banking service in its own community. Together they provide a statewide network of banking service that yields many distinct advantages for firms operating throughout the state.
